

BOICH FAMILY CELLAR

2022 Perennius Cabernet Sauvignon

Napa Valley AVA

Winemaker: Jeff Ames | Cooperage: 22 Months French Oak, Taransaud and Darnajou

Perennius | Crafted from the finest barrel selections in our portfolio, Perennius captures the greatest qualities of our 2022 Cabernet Sauvignon vintage. This limited-release art edition showcases Lilac Moon by artist Ross Caliendo, renowned for his surrealistic interpretations of the natural world.

Napa Valley AVA | The Napa Valley Appellation brings the ideal combination of Mediterranean climate, geography and geology, providing excellent consistency vintage-to-vintage. Flanked by the Mayacamas and Vaca Mountain ranges, distinct microclimates and terrains can be found throughout the valley, allowing for a wide range of world-class grape varieties.

Vintage Notes | The 2022 vintage was marked by intense heat and drought conditions, accelerating ripening and producing smaller, more concentrated berries with rich flavors and firm tannins. While the tannins may be more pronounced, these wines have significant aging potential, likely to soften and develop beautifully. The vintage will appeal to lovers of Napa's powerful, fruit-forward Cabernet Sauvignons, offering both early drinking pleasure and long-term cellaring rewards.

Winemaker Notes

Boich Family Cellar's Perennius 100% Cabernet Sauvignon is a rare selection of the best barrels from the vintage. The 2022 wine offers a bright, deep red ruby color and a succulent nose of dark plum, black berries, mulberry, mocha, and touch of oak baking spice. The mouthfeel is remarkably lush and full of supple tannins as the flavors of black cherry, cassis, fig, dark rose petal and toasty oak linger on the palate for minutes. This is an extraordinary wine that so irresistible now but will easily be rewarded for a few decades in the cellar.
